

The Pentiction Quilters Guild presents

Quilted ExpressionZ

May 5 & 6 2018

Pentiction Trade and Convention Center, 173 Power Street, Pentiction B.C.

We are a local group of quilters & fabric artists (71 strong) who gather together sharing our love of quilting and all things fabric. Every three years we mount a exhibition of our creative endeavors for the community to enjoy.

Our members can be found at the local Farmers Market selling tickets for a raffle, displaying the prizes and you can find us when you locate this car sporting the 1st prize Blue Ribbon for Best Group Entry at Peachland. It will also be at the entrance to the PTCC during the Quilt Show for you to enjoy.

We will have three fabulous raffle prizes you could win just by purchasing tickets from any member of the Guild. Raffle Tickets and prizes will be at various locations between now and the Show.

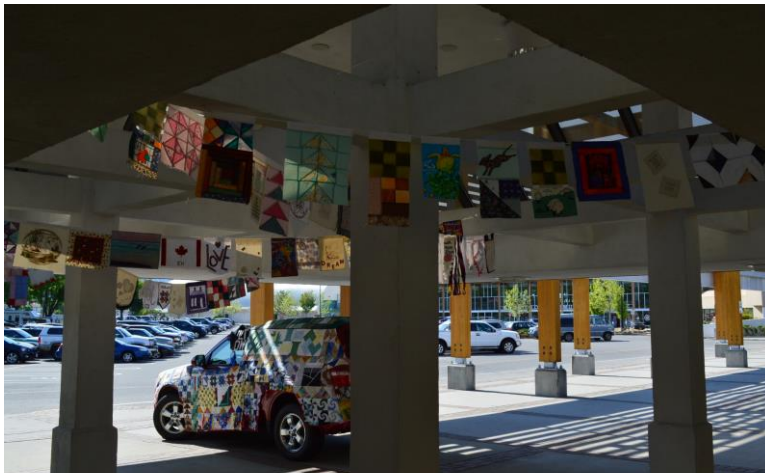

First Raffle prize: Queen size quilt made by Sherry Badger

Check out this lovely second prize! It looks almost antique but with a modern touch. Debra McCracken's original design used squares of hand embroidered flowers.

Members of our guild collectively assembled the lovely green table runner and 6 placemats for our 3rd prize.

Entrance to the 2015 Quilt Show – with the car and Inspirational Flags above.

Display of Community Quilts that the members make during the year. Ranging from full size to lap quilts to baby quilts. Brightly colored, soft and cuddly for times of need. Our guild quietly gives to our community through various organizations including Salvation Army, Meals on Wheels, SOWINS, St Vincent & St Paul, Babies First program, Wildfire & Flood victims in Alberta and BC disasters, BC Children's Hospital, Quilts of Valor and more.
