Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year Quilters

Dec 11th is our Annual Christmas Luncheon, a time for laughter, sharing and great food. Bring a favorite main course, salad or dessert that will feed 6- 8 people. Don't forget to label your serving dish, bring a serving spoon, along with your plate, cutlery and cup. Great time to show off your new Christmas placemats.

Note! Traditionally we bring canned or dried foods for the Salvation Army Food Bank and personnel products, i.e. shampoo, deodorant, feminine products, toothbrush, toothpaste for the gals at Sowins. What a blessing this is to our community.

Programs . . . with Pati

We saw some pretty bright and colorful birds developing on Wednesday at the Frozen Friends workshop and hopefully we will see some of them arrive for Show and Tell before too long.

That was the last of the workshops for 2019 as next month is our Christmas luncheon. January was going to be our Bag class, however with a visible lack of enthusiasm from the general membership, we have decided to cancel that for the time being. There will be an offer it again at the start-up of our next season.

So, for January's workshop we will have another free sew day and a chance to play with some quilted postcards. CQA is once again sponsoring a Postcard challenge and Lorna will provide us with the details on that, but It would be nice if we, as members, can make some postcards to be submitted on behalf of the Penticton Quilters Guild.

The Program committee is looking into offering a unique Landscape class for February where you will be able to utilize your new skills at paperless paper piecing. We are really hoping we can pull this one off - so stay tuned.

Kathy Kirby will be teaching her thread painting class once again in March and then for our final workshop of the year in April, Eileen Zornes will be teaching Part 2 of her - It's all in the Details class. Many of the members who took part in her first class have already signed up for the upcoming Part 2.

I would like to say another big " Thank You " to all the members who keep signing up for our workshops, supporting us and who make it always so enjoyable. Pati

Community Quilts

Good work ladies, we have 111 place mats completed.
Meals on Wheels will get 75. They asked for 70 in September so this will give them a few extra.
We will keep the remainder for next year.
This year 31 Quilts have gone out to the Community, RCMP, Trinity, Village by the Station, Hamlet and Sowins.
Thank you for your help much Appreciated.

Peggy and Cheryl

Consider being trained by the best! We are looking for someone or several persons to take over the community quilts program next season.

I think that Peggy and Cheryl really loved being able to pick out all the lovely quilt patterns and make kits and you could too!

At our class on Wed, Nov 27th a lady came in with three bags of fabric that she was de-stashing from her collection. What a windfall.

Lots of Christmas Fabric for next year's placemats.

Unfortunately, we were so excited that no one got her name. Our community is so generous, and we thank her very much.

Penticton Quilters' Guild Monthly Meeting Minutes

November 13, 2019

Co-president Marilyn Smith presided. Meeting began at 9:00 am.

Guests included Marion Stuart, Terry Churchill and Lorna. Terry became a member.

Lois Paul moved to accept the minutes from the October meeting. Seconded by Linda Van Gastel. Passed.

Treasurer - Sherry Badger

Sherry presented the financial report.

Programs - Pati de Broekert

Pati will be teaching the "birds in boots" table runner this month. A sample was available for viewing.

December will be our Christmas luncheon. Meeting will begin at 10:00 am. Ms. Ujvary will be our guest speaker.

January class will be bag making. A sample bag was shown.

Quilt Show - Pati de Broekert

Show will be April 23 and 24 in 2021.

Many positions for the Quilt Show Committee have already been filled. Lois Paul and Linda Van Gastel have agreed to be in charge of both admissions and volunteers. Still needed are people for the boutique, the raffle and the raffle quilt. (Second and third prizes for the raffle are already in place.) The raffle quilt should involve a number of guild members in production. The name "Quilted Expressionz" will still be used for the show. There is no theme.

Community Quilts - Peggy Swerdfeger and Cheryl Woodcock

We have 93 Christmas placemats, which is well over the 70 required. Rolande informed us that a group from Haven Hill contributed 20 of them.

Other Business

Someone is needed for the Community Quilts Committee, to learn the position with a view toward heading the committee next term.

Someone is needed to replace Diane in producing the newsletter.

The blocks in fall colours which have been brought to the fall meetings will be used by Community Quilts. The free sew day on the 20th will be used to put them together.

In the future, a list of available library books will appear on our website.

Reminders

Please remember to bring the following to the December luncheon: cutlery, plate, cup, napkin and a placemat (optional.) Bring a dish that will feed six people. In addition, bring a toiletries item for donation to SOWINS and a non-perishable item for the food bank.

Prizes were drawn for both those wearing name tags and those bringing in placemats.

Demo was provided by Sherry Badger, in making a dish towel to be worn while cooking. (A great hostess gift or item for gift exchange over the holidays.)

The meeting was adjourned at 10:25 by Marilyn Smith.
