Presidents' Message

April and Spring – They go together! It is wonderful to be meeting again in person. Our next meeting is April 13. We will start the meeting at 9:00 again. And quilts can be hung up on the walls again!

The guild is so fortunate to have such a great facility with kitchen access and storage. The new lights and shiny new floor are an added bonus. We need to arrive and leave by the front entryway as they are filming in the back hall rooms.

For the safety of immune compromised people, please wear a mask while moving around.

We need you to consider helping your Guild. Secretary and Community Quilts positions need to be filled. You may have as many members as you want on your committee.

Still working on donation baby quilts and quilts for residential school survivors. Placemats will be collected all year.

We have the hall til 2:30 so please stay, chat, have lunch, cut, press or sew.

Thank you to those members who attended our Sew Day!

Pssst... Wear your

to the meeting, so our newer members (and those of us who could use an assist!) can get to know everyone... and you might even win a prize!!

Library

Thank you to Bev Witzaney, Sherry Badger and Yvonne Mottishaw for their help in purging our library holdings. We have discarded about 75 books, which you will now find in the next few meetings on the free table. Older magazines will be saved to sell at the quilt show. We may explore re-organizing the books in topic sections, e.g. free motion quilting/applique.

THIS IS YOUR LIBRARY! For our next meeting, please consider what would make the library more useful to you. What items would you like to see included? Any other magazine suggestions? Suggestions for improving collection? system? etc! Your input is needed!!!

A reminder that items are due back at the next meeting.
